

Exclusion Policy

Dawn Until Dusk Ltd. operate an inclusive setting where all children are welcome regardless of their race, religion, culture, sex, ability or disability, social background etc.

There are, however, certain occasions when it may be necessary to ask a parent not to bring their child to Dawn Until Dusk Ltd. for a short period of time these reason include:

- If a child is ill (see illness and accident policy)
- If a child is highly infectious with a condition (see illness and accident policy)
- If the child has a notifiable disease
- If a child has had a bout of sickness or diarrhoea within the last 48hours
- If a child is on antibiotics that they haven't taken before and it is within the first three days of the course (in case of allergic reaction)

Dawn Until Dusk Ltd. has the right to terminate a contract with immediate effect and exclude a child permanently from the setting in the following situations.

- If the child continually demonstrates aggressive behaviour to the other children or staff at the setting
- If the child continually uses inappropriate language(swearing)
- If the child continually makes inappropriate remarks such as racist comments
- If the child is likely to cause any harm to other children
- If the child is found to be stealing from the setting

The manager would discuss with the parents the concerns that they have and have worked with them over a period of time to address the child's behaviour. I would have used a variety of different strategies and with parental permission sought support from outside agencies. The manager would only exclude a child if their behaviour was very severe and having continued negative impact on the other children in the setting.
